Hello,

This email address is used to report Public Interest Disclosures about the Department of Health and Aged Care (the Department) employees and contractors. The Public Interest Disclosure Act 2013 (the Act) is a legislative scheme for the reporting and investigation of allegations of serious wrongdoing in the Commonwealth public sector.

The objectives of the Act are to:

- promote the integrity and accountability of the Commonwealth public sector
- encourage and facilitate the making of public interest disclosures by public officials
- ensure that public officials who make public interest disclosures are supported and protected from adverse consequences relating to the disclosures
- ensure that disclosures by public officials are properly investigated and dealt with
- ensure that PID officers refer serious or systemic corruption issues to the National Anti-Corruption Commission.

For further information relating to Public Interest Disclosures please see- Public Interest Disclosures | Australian Government Department of Health and Aged Care or Public interest disclosure \(whistleblowing\) | Commonwealth Ombudsman

As your report below does not relate to the Department of Health and Aged Care no action has been taken by the Department.

Thank you

K.M Garside | Authorised Officer

Australian Government Department of Health and Aged Care
GPO Box 9848, Canberra ACT 2601
